ECHOING THE CALL IN 2025, GOING DEEP IN 2026

2025 was a year in which we emphasized bold proclamation. Under the theme of Echo: Amplifying the Need for Evangelism, we rallied the Great Commission community to embrace Jesus' final words with renewed urgency. Evangelism is the first of three core tenets we are focusing on – followed by discipleship in 2026 and church planting in 2027.

Our mission remains clear: to catalyze relationships, ideas, and collaboration within the Great Commission community. That mission came alive in 2025. Leaders gathered at Echo 2025 to share best practices, pray together, and dream big for gospel advancement. Churches engaged with new tools like the Church Assessment, helping them measure and strengthen their global strategy. Alliances were forged, resources launched, and conversations deepened – all pointing toward the same goal: making Christ known among the nations.

As we turn toward 2026, our focus shifts to discipleship – shaping global followers of Jesus who multiply and mature. Discipleship is not a program; it's a lifestyle of obedience and relationship with God. We believe this emphasis will equip leaders and churches to move deeper into lifelong formation personally and through their broader ministries.

Thank you for standing with us. Your prayers, participation, and partnership make this association possible. Together, we are echoing the call, going deep, and preparing to plant churches to fulfill Christ's commission.

Sincerely,

J. Ted Esler, PhD
President

Members Shaping the Great Commission

In 2025, the Missio Nexus community witnessed remarkable stories of transformation, innovation, and collaboration. Our members embraced new tools, forged alliances, and pioneered creative approaches to sharing the message of Jesus around the world. The following stories showcase how individuals and organizations are amplifying evangelism, deepening discipleship, and mobilizing for the unreached. As you read these accounts, we invite you to celebrate the impact, learn from the journey, and be inspired to join in the mission.

REIMAGINING MISSIONS ENGAGEMENT THROUGH COHORTS

Tracy Minke, Missions Pastor at Cross-Roads Church, joined a Sprint Innovation Cohort in 2025. “My time in The Cohort was incredibly valuable and helped me reimagine how I engage my church in missions,” Tracy shared. Through collaborative sessions with peers and facilitators, Tracy developed a new mobilization strategy that integrates digital tools and relational pathways. The result? Increased volunteer engagement and a clearer roadmap for global partnerships. Cohorts are catalysts for innovation. Join one at MissioNexus.org/cohorts.

Partnership to Mobilize Remote Volunteers in Advancing the Great Commission

FROM INSPIRATION TO IMPLEMENTATION

Echo 2025 inspired hundreds of leaders to take bold steps in evangelism. One missions pastor reflected, “I came home transformed and am eager to put into practice all that I learned.” For many, that next step was the Church Assessment, launched at Echo 2025. Churches used the tool to identify gaps in prayer, advocacy, and sending. One leader noted, “The process was eye-opening – it gave us a roadmap for mobilization.” This combination of vision and practical tools exemplifies Missio Nexus’ commitment to equipping the Great Commission community. Take the assessment online at MissioNexus.org/assessment.

CONNECTING CHURCHES TO THE UNREACHED

In 2025, Missio Nexus partnered with Switchboard to launch the Church Kit, a resource designed to help congregations advocate for unreached people groups. The kit includes prayer guides, digital assets, and engagement ideas for local churches. Early adopters reported strong participation: “Our members loved the tangible ways to connect with global needs,” said one missions leader. This collaboration reflects our vision to provide practical tools that mobilize churches for the Great Commission. Learn more about this innovative mobilization tool at MissioNexus.org/church-kit.

Advancing the Mission Together

2025 was a landmark year for Missio Nexus. Here's what we accomplished together:

These initiatives reflect our commitment to equipping leaders and amplifying the Great Commission.

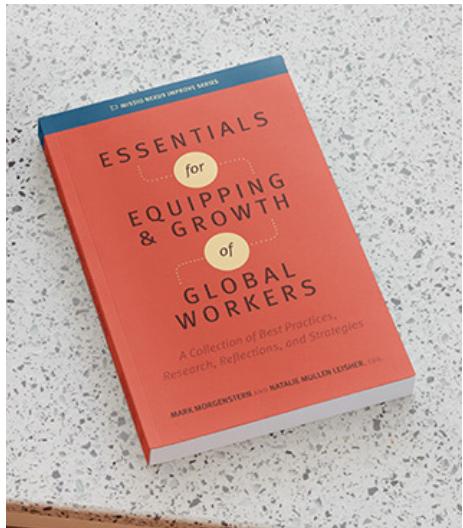

Mission Leaders Conference (Echo 2025) achieved our highest-ever Net Promoter Score of 70, with workshops and networking rated most valuable.

Church Missions Assessment Tool launched in three phases: pilot in September, member rollout at Echo, and public access in October.

A Third of Us Alliance was consolidated under Missio Nexus and kicked off a multi-year awareness campaign in November.

Support Missio Nexus in equipping mission leaders to grow in their role, make new connections, and gain a global perspective. Together, we can strengthen Great Commission mobilization and unlock the potential for church missions success.

Tracks 365 communications began in December, paving the way for year-round learning in 2026.

Two major publications debuted at Echo: Missiology for Missions Pastors and Essentials for Equipping and Growth of Global Workers.

We expanded member benefits with a Logos Bible Software discount and advanced innovation through three Sprint Cohorts involving 30+ organizations.

Through the Innovation Fund, we partnered with Switchboard to launch the Church Kit, equipping congregations to advocate for the unreached.

Missio Nexus 2025 Highlights

In 2025, Missio Nexus invested deeply in community learning and collaboration. Echo 2025 brought together over 1,000 mission leaders for four plenary sessions, 64 workshops, and 13 networking events. Beyond the conference, we curated quarterly issues of EMQ, hosted webinars on mobilization and compliance, and facilitated Innovation Cohorts that helped agencies tackle real-world challenges.

Our Catalyst Groups continued to foster peer learning, and we prepared for an expanded Peer-2-Peer model launching in early 2026. These initiatives ensure that leaders have ongoing access to best practices, research, and relationships that strengthen global missions.

Your support fuels enriching community programs, enabling impactful publications, dynamic programs, and inspiring events. Join us in equipping the Great Commission community.

Global Leadership Gatherings

In 2025, Missio Nexus hosted ten in-person gatherings, highlighted by the Echo Mission Leaders Conference in Orlando, where over 1,000 mission leaders united to network, share best practices, and rally around the urgent call to evangelism. Our expanded virtual programming included quarterly webinars, innovation cohorts, and peer learning groups, while four prayer gatherings brought together participants to intercede for the unreached.

Through these catalytic events, we equipped church and agency leaders to advance gospel proclamation and mobilize the Great Commission community for bold evangelistic impact.

I'Ching Thomas unpacked the importance of "glocal evangelism" at the 2025 Mission Leaders Conference in Orlando, Florida.

Deepen programming that equips leaders to steward well-managed, mission-driven organizations.

Expand resources that empower field leaders to thrive in complex and challenging contexts.

Advocate with greater influence – mobilizing collective action for the unreached through A Third of Us, ensuring every believer is engaged in the Great Commission.

Your membership and generosity make this possible. The unity of the body of Christ is both vital and powerful. Through this association we stay focused on the ultimate goal: seeing the gospel proclaimed to those without access.
